Location: Council Chambers

Minutes Review

Old Business

Action Plan Review and Progress Report (Howard Reid)

Community Events Calendar (Kate Wolfe)

Family Cycling Event, connected to Kids Safety Day, June 14, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tasks and Assignment (Ron Krom)

De-brief on Traffic Count on Arrigoni Bridge Sidewalks (David Sandler)

Presentations to Other Commissions –

- Council Workshop (not approved or scheduled)
- Recreation and Community Services – John Hall will attend on June 12 @ 6 p.m.; others are welcome. Bicycle events sponsored by the City are a key item in this discussion.

Revisit list of agencies and committees originally discussed to determine if there is a necessity to reach out to new agencies. (Last item from May minutes.)

Outreach to Woodrow Wilson Middle School and Bielefield School, and gather reports on outreach to schools for Marco Gaylord-- (Kate and Laura)

Opening of Mattabessett Trail – Tom Nigosanti says this is essentially done and we can have a “ribbon cutting” or opening any time. When (what day and time) would we want to have such an event?

Bike Racks at Kid City and Russell Library area – (Beth)

Wesleyan Hills – Wesleyan Multi-Use Trail update (Action Plan #4) – (John)

Bike Friendly Community Application – Status and next steps, timeline? (Beth)

Bike Route in Middletown from Wesleyan to Downtown & Riverfront (Rich Pelletier, liaison to Riverfront Committee.)

New Business

Ideas for Fall 2014 – projects, rides, walks, education on bike safety (see Community Calendar and Action Plan)
